FROM THE ALBANY ARGUS. We have by the Great Western, and thro' other channels, the facts in relation to the arrest of Webb at Bristol.

Buren's departure from the country. Of the existence of the note, Mr. Van Buren was altogether ignorant. It was sent out by the riff for protection; a wild and extravagant first packet after its maturity, by a merchant of the city of New York, an acttive political friend of Webb, and addressed to his agent in London, with instructions to proceed to its collection, but to do so with all delicavising of the demands sent to his hands, and upon the most favorable footing. For the rest, the London agent will speak for him-
